Office in Your Pocket

Measuring 4.3 inches by 2.3 inches, the T-Mobile personal digital assistant weighs about 5.3 ounces, fits in a pocket, and is supported on 850, 900, 1800, and 1900 bands for better sound quality. The device also is GPRS/EDGE enabled for easy e-mail and Internet usage and features Bluetooth, Wi-Fi, Microsoft Windows Mobile 5.0, a 1.3 megapixel camera, a full keyboard, and mini SD memory. With this device, users can access e-mail and attach documents from their desktops from any location. The T-Mobile PDA costs $399.99. Contact T-Mobile at (800) 866-2453 for new customers, (800) 937-8997 for existing customers, or www.t-mobile.com.

Smart Cordless Mouse

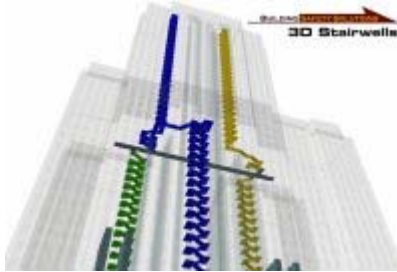

The Logitech MX610 Laser Cordless Mouse allows users to communicate with their computers through 2.4 GHz digital cordless technology. The mouse detects when the computer is on, saves power by turning itself off, and senses if there is wireless interference. The mouse also notifies users when they receive e-mails and instant messages. With the Tilt Wheel Plus Zoom scroll wheel, users can navigate their computer screen with the mouse. The mouse has an expected battery life of up to three months, includes a USB micro-receiver, can be used on any surface, and has laser tracking for more accurate performance. The Logitech MX610 Laser Cordless Mouse costs $59.99.
